FOOD SPIRITS

Relax and enjoy our comfortable atmosphere while you view the gentle wildlife surroundings. May we suggest your favorite cocktail or wine while you look over the menu. Perhaps you'd like to try one of our unique features like our Blackened Prime Rib or famous deep fried pickles. Our friendly staff is here to please you, so let us know if we can do anything to make your dining experience more enjoyable!

Why the name J. J. Jamoke? This was the nickname given to John Sanber, owner, by his father when he was a child. His dad would introduce him (number 7 in a family of 16 children!) as John J. Jamoke, my wife's son! It was later learned that the name stood for knucklehead, good for nothing, etc., a term from the Chicago area in the 1930's.
